Vanceburg is always in the bald-headed row with noveliles Mrs. J. N. Thompson of that city was cutting up a chicken, when she found a pin imbedded in the liver. A hard, gristly substance had formed about it. Otherwise the liver was perfectly healthy-looking.

A curious case was on trial at Vance-burg Saturday. Last summer James Blankenship, a merchant of Clarksburg, lost a pair of steers. Jack Logan, a wealthy farmer of Lance creek, was charged with having taken them to Portsmouth sand selling them. Blanken-ship had Logan arrested, a compromise ship had Lagan arrested, a compromise was made, Lagan aknowledged taking the cattle and gave Blankenship his note for $100. Now Logan tries to defeat the note by claiming he was crazy when he executed it.

This time, in the desperate contest for delegates to the State and National Con vention, he had to encounter the antago nism of the two leading Republican or ganizations of the state, with such lead ers as Todd, the Mayor of Louisville Denny, Roberts, Congressmen Pugh and Hunter—the latter thirsting for revenge— disappointed office-seekers and so on; but he downed them all and bobbed up serenely, the same Bill Bradley as before

NO OTHER COULD DO IT.

No other living Republican in the state could have carried a majority of the Con-rention against the high advancing tide of McKinley's popularity.

Washinotox, April 20.—The house committee on accounts will report Monday without recommendation the resolution providing for the employment of round inated of during the session. The question was recently agitated enew in connection with the report of the conferes on the legislative, executive end judicial epipropriation bili, It was stated that the senate had member of that body not a chairment of a committee, 38 in all, a clerk et a salary of $1.000 a year. The house conferes had not agreed to the amendment but Gen. Bingham Franklin stated that he saw no outcome of the struggle in the same assistance and the resolution that the members should have the same assistance and the resolution referred to was introduced to secure it. The committee were evenly divided on received that the members should have the same assistance and the resolution referred to was introduced to secure it. The committee were evenly divided on received that the members should have the same assistance and the resolution referred to was introduced to secure it. The committee were evenly divided on received that the members will then have the majority of them have the proposition. Mr. Cennon is of the opinion that the resolution will be passed; that 'the house is stacked for for it," but Mr. Aldrich believes that I will be defeated. To provide these clerks at $1,300 a year. the same rate estimated that the present pay, will cast $450,500 an anally.
